

GAVE HIM SIXTEEN YEARS.

J. M. Thompson Convicted for the Sugar Land Robbery.

GOLDBLATT'S BOND WAS REDUCED.

Williams vs. the Railroad. $100 on Trial. Several Damages Suits Filed Yesterday. An Arrest.

In the criminal district court yesterday a jury of twelve American citizens deliberated for three hours and fifty minutes and finally reached a conclusion which assigns J. M. Thompson to sixteen years' penal servitude.

Thompson has been on trial for three days past charged with the robbery of the agent of the Wells Fargo Express company at Sugar Land, Texas, January 1, 1895. The story of the robbery, which appeared exclusively in The Post the day following its commission, is familiar to the readers of this paper. Agent Adams was brutally beaten by the men, who fled with drawn revolvers and carried him to hand over the contents of his office safe, amounting to $123.22.

Thompson and one Crain were arrested. Crain recently died at the St. Joseph's hospital, having been removed from jail to the hospital on account of serious illness.

During the trial of the case one witness testified that he saw Thompson and his associates divide the spoils of the robbery, and that he held their horses while the "avag" was being split. This evidence was hard against Thompson and the defense did not recover from the blow it dealt.

The evidence in the case was concluded at the session of court Friday night and the argument was continued by District Attorney J. R. P. Thompson for the State, and by Mr. J. L. Brockman for the defense.

The closing argument for the defense was made by Hon. H. F. Fisher, judge of the court, who said: "I have heard the case and I am satisfied that the evidence is sufficient to convict the defendant of the crime charged."

The application of Henry Goldblatt for reduction of bond of $100 in the case of Williams vs. the Railroad, was considered by Hon. Sam H. Harris and the amount was reduced to $50. The application of the same party for a writ of habeas corpus was also considered and the writ was granted.

The case of Williams vs. the Railroad, Texas Central, the Missouri, Kansas and Texas and the Texas and New Orleans Railway companies, is still on the trial. The testimony is not yet finished and will be resumed Monday evening.

HOUSTON'S HOME MARKET.

A Great Crowd at the Market Square Yesterday.

STRAWBERRIES FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

A Luxury That All Can Enjoy—The Real Price of Strawberries, Apples, Fruit, Etc.

The market square was crowded yesterday from daylight till dark and from dusk until midnight. The supply of garden truck, including vegetables of all kinds, was ample, fresh and nice, in fact everything that an epicurean taste demands, was fully as great as the demand. Prices were not excessive. New strawberries will be furnished during Christmas week. Below will be found closing prices:

FRIENDLY ADVICE.

The rush for Christmas presents has already set in and is growing daily. Previous experience moves us to urge our patrons to come early and avoid the rush. You get a better selection, you can have your purchases laid aside, and you have it off your mind. In loose diamonds we have gems of all sizes, and in mounted diamonds our selection of solitaires, marquises, cluster and fancy rings, brooches, pins, ear drops and studs is not equaled in the South, while the display of ladies' and gents' gold watches is the finest ever shown here. The prices were never so low as we make them this year.

"DEAD WALLS."

An Interesting Case for Recorder Hill to Pass Upon.
J. H. Froelich was arrested yesterday by Officer Tom Harville on a charge of violating article 216 of the city ordinance, the complaint being Ed Kiam. Article 216 says:

All hacks, drays or other carriages shall have the right to drive or back to any sidewalk in the city and remain there a reasonable length of time to receive or discharge passengers or freight, but it shall be unlawful to remain longer than a reasonable time so to do, or, after the owner or occupant of the premises opposite the curb of which the carriage or other vehicle may be standing, shall have requested the driver or driver of such carriage or vehicle to move away. If, after a reasonable time, the driver of such vehicle does not move away, the owner or occupant of the premises opposite the curb of which the carriage or other vehicle may be standing, shall be liable to a fine of not more than $10.00 for each violation. The case has been set for hearing Monday afternoon before Recorder Hill.

There has been some discussion recently as to the construction of the court would draw upon the words "dead walls," and a number of persons have contended that there being no entrance to the Kiam building, the words "dead walls" are not applicable to the case. However, and this may remove the doubts, the case has been set for hearing Monday afternoon before Recorder Hill.

ON A HUNT.
Justice J. J. Huxley, County Attorney J. J. Huxley, and Mr. Huxley, who were out hunting yesterday for a few days, returned to the city yesterday morning. They were well supplied with game and were accompanied by a number of the best of the city's sportsmen.
